A CARNIVAL OF CYCLING.

CHERRY DIAMOND'S DAY OF SPORT.

A BIG CROWD PRESENT-ONE RECORD EQUALLED

-HANDSOME PRIZES GIVEN. Harlem's 4mmense arena, known to lovers of ama teur athletic sports as Manhattan Field had on its brightest garb yesterday. The perfectly kept field, with its emerald carpet, surrounded by its brick dust track, and a wall of well dressed human beings, made a picture grand and inspiring. Cappa's band of musicians playing lively music, made one's feet jingle against the boards, and finished an appropriate picture in honor of a carnival for the display of brawn

The second annual cycling carnival of the Manhattan Athletic Club at Manhattan Field yesterday was a success in every way. Secretary Hughes esti-mated the attendance at 20,000, and even to an impartial onlooker the crowd seemed large enough to estimated at 15,000. But the accommodations of she grounds are so ample that large as the crowd was, was plenty of room for everybody, and nobody was crushed for trampled upon. The management was excellent and the programme was run off in good season, enabling everybody to get home for an early dinner. There was a crush on the devated roads, but everybody expected that, and nobody

The track was in excellent condition in spite of Although most of America's the recent rains. Although most of America's speedlest riders of the cumbersome-looking safeties were entered in the races, no records were broken. The track record for a quarter of a mile was equalled In one race. Much disappointment was expressed that A. A. Zimmerman, the New-York Athletic Club filer, did not compete. Some said that the rider, who has smashed so many American and English records, had received more flattering inducements to ride somewhere else. Others thought that Zimmerman did not care to measure strength with Windle, Taylor, Berlo and Banker, especially when none of his club-mates were present to help make the pace, or to give other little attentions, so pleasant in a mighty

It was a great day for the Cherry Diamond men, they capturing all but two of the races. George F. was trained to the hour and his all-around performance was remarkable. The prizes were hand some and in most cases serviceable, among them, for example, being a vacant lot in a surburban town, planes, watches, jewelry, bicycles and slik neck-tles by the dozen. The offer of the Manhattan Club for a team race for three men was not accepted. contest of the day was the five-nile race for the Eastern Chemptonship for which five handsome prizes Were given. There were ten starters, and Taylor won rather easily from Berlo, Taylor taking the lead of the stretch, but the latter drew away again and won by two lengths. The fractional times were as follows: First mile, 2:523-5; third, 8:50 3 5; fourth, 12:06 1-5; and fifth, 14:52:3-5. There was some lagging in the distance races, and two contests were ordered to be run over because they were not made within the stipulated time limit. Both races were repeated in worse time than before.

TROUBLES OF THE IRON HALL

CHARGING CONSPIRACY TO WRECK THE ORDER.

SUPREME OFFICERS CALLED A PACK OF THIEVES-

WORTHLESS COLLATERAL IN PHILADEL-PHIA-A RECEIVER FOR LOCAL BRANCHES.

Binghamton, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Deputy Supreme Justice Thompson, of this city, who represented New-York State during the Iron Hall troubles at Indianapolis, and also assisted in traiding an inventory of the effects of the order there, charges upon Judge Taylor's al-leged partiality and biased decisions the defeat of the leged partiality and blased decisions the defeat of the Iron Hall in Indiana. He alleges that the judicary, witnesses and Indianapolis pipers were subsidized. His opinions are upheld by County Judge Arms, who has just returned from the West. Mr. Thompson claims that time to prepare their defense was refused to the Iron Hall attorneys, showing desperate conspiracy on the part of Supreme Treasurer Davis and Supreme Accountant Walker to wreck the order. He also stated that the defendants prepared statements for publication which were taken by the reporters to the office of the plaintiffs' attorneys, where they were "doctored." Only garbled reports of the defendants' side of the case, he claimed, were printed. he further alleges, was lavishly used by the insurance men. He adds that the order is dead only in Indiana, and that receivers will be appointed in every State to Philadelphia, Aug. 27 .- The inventory and appraisement of the estate of the Mutual Banking. Surety and Trust Company which recently failed, having on deposit $720,000 of the Order of Iron Hall's funds, was filed to-day in court. Forty-two notes which are past due, many of them for small amounts, with no names given and no total of face value mentioned, are appraised at being worth nothing. Some of the notes range as high as $1,800 and $3,000 each. The appraisement concludes with the Cash in bank, $102,121 32; securities owned, $79,350; furniture, $500; commercial paper. $94,861 89; demand call loans, $50,000; time call loans, $107,796; total, $434,629 31.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 27.—At a meeting last night of the local branches of the Order of Iron Hall several motions were made and lost as to the manner in which of the local branches of the Order of Iron Hall several motions were made and loct as to the manner in which the members should proceed to secure the funds still in the State of Michigan. The different views expressed were finally united in a resolution that it was the sense of the meeting that each branch should appoint as a joint committee one delegate for each forty members and major fraction, such delegates to have charge of the interests of the order in Detroit. Somethy and the order supreme officers were denounced as a pack of theeves by those who spoke.

Bostof, Aug. 27.—Joshun I. Stearns, of Lynn, and other members of the Iron Hall have petitioned the supreme Court for an injunction restraining the officers of the order from transacting any further bosiness in this state, and have also asked for a receiver. The petut, ner claim that the arder has become wholly in soircent and unable '0 meet its obligations.

Portand, Me. Aug. 27.—Judge Virgin today issued a torquernry injunction against the trustees of the local branches of the iron Hall to prevent helr paying out the funds of the order.

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 27.—Judge Clark yester, day appointed a receiver for the six local branches of the order.

Manchester, N. H., Aug. 27.—Judge Clark pester day appointed a receiver for the six local branches of the Iron Hall, which have about $15,000 in the banks here. In answer to the question whether the receiver suppointed in Indianapolis would secure the reserve funds of the different lodges, Judge Clark said that there was no uniformity of the bankruptcy laws of the various states, and no extracteritorial rights excepting those by which the members of the order in New Hampshire could be bound by the decision of an Indianapolis judge.

" JUDICIALLY DEAD," THOU-H STILL LIVING.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.-John McNulty, the murderer, who has been in the county jail here four years under sentence of death, is, in the language of Judge Murphy, who sentenced him, "judicially dead," and yet he may never have the rope placed around his neck. McNulty was to be hanged yester day, but the sheriff's counsel advised that official not to proceed, as the Governor's reprieve did not specify to proceed, as the Governor's reprieve did not specify the time for execution, and that the prisoner must be brought before Judge Marphy for resentence. The District Attorney will now bring McNuity before Judge Murphy on Monday, but the Judge, speaking unoincially, says: "Time of execution having passed, McNuity, in contemplation of the law, is judicially dead. My court is done with him." If Judge Murphy adheres to this opinion when the matter comes before him judicially, then there is no power in the State to pullish the murderer, even by imprisonment, and he will be set free.

SHOT BY A REJECTED LOVER.

Chleago, Aug. 27 .- Frank A. Kretschman, a printer has for the last two years been anxious to marry Mrs. Ida Haucell. She has refused him on an average of once every month since she has known him. Kretschhad his usual luck again last night, and in reverge he shot the woman with a revolver.

HOBOKEN.

TROUBLE OVER STOLEN DIAMONDS.

Inke Brandt, of Hoboken, an ex-school trustee, is having a legal fight with Robert Simpson, a pawn-broker in New York, and the New-York and Hoboken olice are much interested in the result. Mr. Brandt an accountant for William Howe & Co., coal Atlantic Boat Club and something of a politician. He lives in good style at No. 727 Park-ave. A month ago he reported to the Hoboken police that his apart ments had been entered by a sneak thief, and diamonds valued at $1,000, the property of his wife, had been stolen. Chief Donovan and Detective Gallagher stolen. Chief Donovan and Detective Gallague traced the robbery to Charles Foster, a sneak thief who is now in Sing Sing Prison for a crime committed in New-York. Two or three weeks ago Brandt asked Captain Hayes to detail a detective to search for the missing diamonds in New-York pawnshops. Brandt went with Detective Goode to Robert Simpson's office. The pawnbrokers knew Goode and exhibited their diamonds. Brandt immediately recognized Mrs. Brandt's diamonds. The books showed that the alleged robbery. Brands said he would redeem them, but he and his wife consulted a lawyer, and early last Monday morning Robert Simpson was arrested in his cottage at Montelair by an officer with a complaint sworn to by Mrs. Brandt. He gave ball at Newark in the morning. Simpson's counsel culled at the State House in Trenton last Friday and asked for copies of the papers filed by Mrs. Brandt's counsel. It is said that Simpson will right the case to the end, and that he will be assisted by other pawn-brokers, who are angry at his arrest. Capiain Hayes says that Erandt's action is unfortunate, as it will make it difficult for Jersey policemen who find stolen property in New-York pawnshops.

UNION HILL.

Catharine Schaeffer, twenty-three years of age, and unmarried, disappeared from the home of her parents, on Weehawken-st., Union Hill, August 13, but her family, for some reason, did not report the matter until yesterday. Miss Schaeffer was engaged to be married to a young man living in New York, with the cordial approval of her entire family, hence there is no reason to suppose that she has cloped. On the day she left me she were a dark calico dress, blue jacket and straw home she were a dark calico dress, hime Jacket and straw hat. She had several articles of jewelry, but left them on the bureau in her room. As she hissed her mother good-bye Mrs. Schaeffer noticed that she were no ornaments and asked her why. She said there was no need for jewelry where she was going, and left the homes. Her parents say that she had been despondent without apparent cause for several weeks, and when she did not return they interpreted her remark about her jewelry as implying an intent to commit suicide.

NO SPOOKS FOUND IN THE OLD HOTEL. Policeman Gallagher and Detective Whifeanie, by order of Chief John Y. McKane, spent Friday night in the old Oceanic Hotel at Coney Island, which is alleged to be haunted. Three newspaper reporters kept up a dismai vigil with the two policemen, watch-ing for the ghost which was said to have been seen about the premises, especially at midnight. Superstitions old Coney Islanders assert that they have heard strange noises in the old hotel, and seen supernatural white figures moving about the premises after They have been led to believe that a murder committed in the hotel many years ago was the cause of the house being haunted.

The policemen and newspaper men remained on watch until daylight yesterday morning, but saw nothing that looked like a ghost. About 2 a. m. Policeman Gallagher imagined that he heard a strange noise in the building and a thorough search was made from the cellar to the garret, but all to no purpose, Persons who have been living in the Oceanic Hotel during the summer have moved out on account of the stories that have been circulated about the alleged Drunkenness, following prostration by the heat, turned the head of Lewis Engelhorn, who committed suicide yesterday afterneon. He was a German who had a wife and four children living in the tenement-house, No. 976 First-ave., and he had regular employment as a workman for the Consumers' Brewing Company. Early in July he suffered from sunstroke and after he was able to get about again, he was dronk much of the time. In one of his drunken fits yesterday he began to beat his wife and children and they ran into the hallway of the tenement-house to get out of his way. Hearing a pistel shot, Mrs. Englehorn ran back into one of the rooms and found her husband dying on the floor. He had shot himself in the head. He died before a physician could be called. head.
